SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974, the NCUA is rescinding the following two systems of records notices from its system of records inventory. As part of a routine review, the NCUA determined that these systems of records notices have been superseded by government-wide system of records notices. A government-wide system of records is a system of records in which one agency has regulatory authority over the records in the custody of multiple agencies and that agency has the responsibility for publishing a system of records notice that applies to all records regardless of their custodial location. The original publication of these system of records notices is covered below in the History section.

1. NCUA-7, Employee Injury File. This system of records notice has been superseded by a Government-wide system of records notice, DOL/GOVT-1, Office of Workers' Compensation Programs, Federal Employees' Compensation Act File (published at 81 FR 25776 on April 29, 2016).
2. NCUA-14, PaymentNet J.P. Morgan Chase Bank PaymentNet. This system of records notice has been superseded by two Government-wide system of records notices, GSA/GOVT-3, Travel Charge Card Program (published at 78 FR 20108 on April 3, 2013), and GSA/GOVT-6, GSA SmartPay Purchase Charge Card Program (published at 73 FR 22376 on April 25, 2008).
